CAROLINE'S DÓTERRA ESSENTIAL OILS

WELLNESS WITH CAROLINE HORGAN

Rest, Sleep & Inner Calm

As the evenings grow darker and the pace of life continues to quicken, it becomes even more important to prioritise rest and quality sleep. A calm mind and a rested body are the true foundations of wellbeing — and the beautiful essential oils Lavender, Serenity, and Balance can help us unwind, release tension, and prepare for deep, restorative rest.

Lavender – The Calming Oil

Known as the “go-to” for relaxation, Lavender is perfect for easing stress and encouraging restful sleep. Diffuse it in the evening, add a drop to your pillow, or apply to the temples and wrists before bed. You can also apply a drop to the top and back of the big toe, which is a key reflex point connected to sleep — or take one drop of doTERRA's pure Lavender oil under the tongue for instant calm and relaxation.

Serenity – The Restful Blend

A soothing combination of Lavender, Cedarwood, Ho Wood, and Vanilla Bean that promotes deep relaxation and a sense of peace. Diffuse Serenity before bedtime to help quiet the mind and prepare the body for sleep. It also comes as a Serenity Restful Stick with added Valerian — a no-mess, easy-to-use option for children, teenagers, and adults alike. Simply rub it on the skin before bed or during travel for instant comfort. It retails at €29.70, or for those with their own doTERRA account through Wellness with Caroline Horgan, its €22.25, with 25% savings across all oils when you open an account for just €25 per year (Serenity is FREE with the Home Essentials Kit purchased this November).

Balance – The Grounding Blend

A warm, woody blend of Spruce, Ho Wood, Frankincense, Blue Tansy, and Blue Chamomile that helps calm the emotions and steady the mind. Apply to the soles of the feet each morning to stay centered throughout the day, or diffuse in the evening to create a peaceful, grounding atmosphere. Balance is also loved by many holistic therapists for its harmonising and emotionally stabilising effects.

A Moment for You

Create a nightly self-care ritual — dim the lights, diffuse Lavender and Serenity, and take a few slow, mindful breaths. Reflect in a journal, stretch gently, or sip a calming tea. Adding these small, intentional moments to your evening routine can truly transform how you rest, reset, and reconnect with yourself.

I'm the go-to doTERRA Wellness Advocate for North Kerry and West Limerick, here to support anyone who would like to purchase essential oils or set up their own doTERRA account. Having your own account is the most cost-effective way to buy oils, with 25% savings across the entire range — and when you open one through me for just €25 for the year, or free when you purchase the Family Essentials Kit, Home Essentials Kit, or any combined group of essential oils or supplements, you'll receive my personal guidance on how to use your oils safely and effectively on your oily and wellness journey.

Caroline's Top Tip – Peaceful Night Diffuser Blend

- 2 drops Serenity
- 2 drops Lavender
- 1 drop Balance

Diffuse this blend in the bedroom 30 minutes before bedtime to invite peace, stillness, and deep sleep. It's one of my personal favorites.

Thought for the Week:

"Rest is not a luxury — it's how we renew our energy, restore our balance, and reconnect with our inner peace."

Wishing you all a peaceful, restorative, and nurturing week ahead.

PRESENTATION LISTOWEL STUDENT GRACE FOLEY QUALIFIES FOR SCIFEST NATIONAL FINAL

Presentation Secondary School Listowel is proud to announce that student Grace Foley has qualified for the SciFest National Final, which will take place at the Marino Institute of Education, Dublin, on Friday, 21st November.

Grace's innovative and thought-provoking project, titled "Yummy, Yummy Uh Oh – Microplastics in My Tummy", explores the presence and potential impact of microplastics in the human food chain. Her work, which highlights a growing environmental and health concern, first gained recognition in the Biological and Ecological category at the BT Young Scientist and Technology Exhibition (BTYSE) last January.

In April, Grace's outstanding research and scientific curiosity were further recognised when she was awarded the coveted Best Project runner up Award at SciFest in TUS Limerick. This success has now earned her a place among the top young scientists in Ireland as she competes at the SciFest National Final.

Grace is currently applying the final touches to her research and is set to represent both Presentation Secondary School, Listowel, and County Kerry on the national stage. Her dedication, creativity, and commitment to scientific exploration continue to inspire her peers and teachers alike.

The school community extends its full support to Grace as she prepares to showcase her project at the national final in Dublin, wishing her every success as she continues her journey in science.

Sisters Sarah and Roisin Corridon pictured at The Kerry Science Festival 2025 at MTU. An Annual Celebration of STEM featuring Workshops, Talks, and Interactive Activities for all ages. Live demonstrations, expert panels, and school outreach programs, it engages the community and inspires students to explore STEM fields. The festival promotes curiosity and innovation while encouraging future generations to pursue STEM careers through hands-on learning and creative competitions.

SAN RITA WELLNESS

Welcome to San Rita Wellness weekly column...We hope all is good with you, below is our weekly column for this week.

At San Rita Wellness your self care and well being is important to us. Wellness covers a variety of areas such as eating healthily, being active and looking after ourselves both mentally and physically. One of the ways of looking after ourselves is getting a good nights sleep. But that's probably easier said than done.

Sleeping well directly affects your mental and physical health. Health experts recommend that we should try and get 7 to 9 hours sleep a night. Fall short and it can take a serious toll on your daytime energy, productivity, emotional balance, and even your weight. We can often feel moody, short tempered and reach for sugary foods to give ourselves a bit of an energy boost. Yet many of us regularly toss and turn at night, struggling to get the sleep we need.

If you want to optimize your health or lose weight, getting a good night's sleep is one of the most important things you can do.

Here are some tips to help you sleep better at night.

Sleep Routine - Try to go to sleep and get up at the same time every day. This helps set your body's internal clock and optimize the quality of your sleep.

Feeling drowsy - Having a heavy meal late in the evening can leave you feeling sleepy way before your bedtime. get off the couch and go for a short walk, call a friend, or get your clothes ready for the next day.

Screen time - Screen time limits your dream time. Avoid bright screens within 1-2 hours of your bedtime. The blue light emitted by your phone, tablet, computer is especially disruptive. Say no to late-night television.

Wind down - Have a relaxing wind down routine. Have a bath, listen to music or read a book. When it's time to sleep, make sure the room is dark. Use heavy curtains or shades to block light from windows, or try a sleep mask.

Avoid alcohol - Having a couple of drinks at night can negatively affect your sleep and hormones. Alcohol is known to cause or increase the symptoms of sleep apnea, snoring or disrupted sleep patterns

Tidy room - To optimize your bedroom environment, try to minimize external noise, light, and artificial lights from devices like alarm clocks. Make sure your bedroom is a quiet, relaxing, clean, and enjoyable place.

Daily Exercise - People who exercise regularly during the daytime sleep better at night. Regular exercise also improves the symptoms of insomnia and sleep apnea and increases the amount of time you spend in the deep, restorative stages of sleep.

Limit Caffeine - Caffeine stimulates your nervous system and may stop your body from naturally relaxing at night. In one study, consuming caffeine up to 6 hours before bed significantly worsened sleep quality.

For extra support and for weekly accountability check us out on Facebook San Rita Wellness or sanritawellness.com for details of our "In Person Meetings", "At Home Service" or our "One to One Service".

NB - Our weekly "In Person Meetings" take place in the Kerry Writers Museum, The Square, Listowel every Wednesday from 10am to 11am and 6pm to 7pm

DEATHS

The death took place of Jeremiah (Jerry) Savage, Chapel Street, Tarbert and formerly of Dromcollogher, County Limerick. Jerry died at UHK Tralee on Friday 7 November aged 81 years. He was predeceased by his wife Joan (nee Naughton), his parents and siblings. He reposed at St. Mary's Funeral Home, Tarbert on Sunday 9 November, his coffin bearing the Limerick flag. His Requiem Mass took place in St. Mary's Church, Tarbert. There was a guard of honour of neighbours, former customers and friends as the remains were being carried into the Church. The Requiem Mass was celebrated by Fr. John Buckley of the Pastoral area. Interment took place to St. Mary's new Cemetery as he was laid to rest with his wife Joan who died on 17 May 2015. John Dowling led St. Mary's Choir of which Jerry was a one time member in a rendition of 'Our Lady of Knock' which Jerry sang whenever he attended daily Mass in Tarbert and Glin. Frances Kennedy followed with a wonderful rendition of Percy French's 'Dromcollogher' remembering Jerry's birthplace and 'the fine place we have there' and Jerry would have approved, certainly the large Limerick congregation did. Jerry never failed to fly the Limerick colours when Limerick hurlers won their five recent All Irelands. Some years ago, Jerry purchased the licensed premises in Chapel Street from the late John McGee and he and his wife Joan traded here for a number of years. In recent years Jerry ceased trading and lived out his retirement here.

The death took place of Stasia Clancy (nee Lanigan) of Kilrush and formerly of Main Street, Tarbert. Stasia who was in her 101st. year having celebrated her century on 29 September 2025 died on Monday 10 November in a nursing home in Kilrush. She was predeceased by her husband Sean and grandson Paul. Her Requiem Mass took place in St. Senan's Church on Thursday 13 November and was celebrated by Fr. Michael Collins, Parish Priest of Kilrush. Fr. Collins spoke of her commitment to community life in Kilrush, her involvement in the Tidy towns, a member of the boards of management of the schools, a Church reader, her part in the renovation and extension of the Community Centre, and other voluntary activities. After Mass Stasia was laid to rest in All Saints Cemetery, Shanakyle.

Stasia was born to Kilkenny hackney driver Bill Lanigan and Delia Brennan in Main Street, Tarbert in 1925, one of six children, 5 boys and a girl. Her mother died in 1943, leaving her father to rear the family on his own. She later married Sean Clancy who was serving with the Irish Army at Fort Shannon, Tarbert during the Emergency War years. Her brother Michael, Tarbert who visited her often in Kilrush died in 2023.

Sympathy of the community to her daughter Maureen, sons Michael, Liam and John grandchildren, great-grandchildren, extended family, neighbours and friends and in particular to her nephews Micheál and Ambrose Lanigan, Tarbert.
Beannacht Dé le hanamacha na marbh go léir.

TOY COLLECTION FOR SVP

15 years ago, Tracy Long, late if Guhard, Lisselton, started a toy collection in aid of St. Vincent de Paul. Tracy ran this for 11 years and collected thousands of toys for kids in the Cork/Kerry area, until her untimely passing in 2021. Since then, her husband, Tom Kennedy, and her family have continued the collection and renamed it "Toys for Tracy" in aid of SVP. Christmas can be a tough time of year for so many, but SVP do such good work in supporting families get through it as best they can. This year we are hoping to fill another van with toys, as we have done each year since 2021. Anyone who would like to contribute can drop off new, unwrapped toys to Tom or to any of the Kennedy or Long families. Vouchers and money are also accepted and will be used to purchase more toys for all age groups of kids. Anyone who is interested in donating can contact Tom on 0861768831. Toys will be handed over to Junior Locke and his colleagues in SVP Tralee mid-December in time for Christmas.

LENAMORE ROVERS

MATCH REPORT: LENAMORE A 2-2 KINGDOM CORINTHIANS
Lenamore A team drew 2-2 with Kingdom Corinthians at Mounthawk Park on Sunday in a game that could've gone either way.

The match started cagey, with both teams struggling to create chances. But after 15 minutes, it was the Tralee side that opened the scoring. After a hand-ball was given against Lenamore on the halfway line, Corinthians took a quick free-kick, which caught the Shannonsiders off guard. A long ball over the top was pounced onto by the Kingdom Corinthians striker, who put the ball in the back of the net to make it 1-0.

However, Lenamore kept their heads up. Minutes later, following a Lenamore throw-in in Corinthians' third, Cian Sheehy got on the ball and was taken down when he reached the penalty area - a spot-kick was given to the side in red and white. Michael Holly stepped up and dispatched the penalty, levelling the tie.

Both teams were now seeing good spells of possession and some nice passages of play, but it was Corinthians who struck next after one of their attackers got on the ball in the final third, slotting it home to put the Tralee side back in front - 2-1 the score at half-time.

Lenamore made a couple of changes in the second half and were desperately in search of an equaliser - eventually, they found what they were looking for. Kieran Swan found Robbie Foley in the middle of the park, and Foley played in Michael Holly, who deftly flicked the ball over the Corinthians' goalkeeper before finishing with composure.

The game was a physical one and could've gone either way. In the end, the spoils were shared in a competitive game at Mounthawk Park.

SUBS: Kieran Swan, Stephen McCarron, Wayne Hayes, Brandon O'Driscoll, Cian Barrett

NORTH KERRY GAA

Novice Cup Final.
Clounmacon 0.17 -v- Ballydonoghue C 0.09
On a crisp, dry afternoon in Ballylongford, Clounmacon and Ballydonoghue C faced off in the North Kerry Novice Cup Final, with Mike Hennessy taking charge of proceedings. Clounmacon opening the scoring through a Bryan Greaney free after five minutes, before Gearóid Kissane responded shortly after for Ballydonoghue. Clounmacon dominated the opening half, registering nine points and controlling possession throughout. Ballydonoghue C were unlucky not to raise a green flag when Jim Cremin rattled the crossbar, though he did add two well-taken points before the break. Clounmacon's scores came from Conor O'Brien, Stephen McCarthy and Trevin Chute, with Greaney in outstanding form — kicking six points (three frees, three from play). At half-time, Clounmacon held a deserved 0-09 to 0-04 advantage. The second half resumed with Clounmacon again on the front foot, Paul O'Connor swinging over a superb point from play in the second minute. Greaney added another before Ballydonoghue rallied, Colin Mahony and John Mahony narrowing the margin to three. A missed goal chance at 14th minute denied them further momentum.

Clounmacon steadied the ship with scores from Greaney, O'Brien, Darragh T. Keane, Niall Horgan and Chris Lyons to keep the scoreboard ticking. In the end, their consistency and accuracy proved decisive as they ran out worthy winners on a 0-17 to 0-09 scoreline.

Ballydonoghue C battled well with strong displays from Kissane, Podge O'Connor, Cremin and Mahony, but Clounmacon's all-round performance stood out.

KNOCK KNOCK KNOCKING ON EMMETS DOOR!!

The charm of The North Kerry Championship will be on full display this Sunday in Brosna as The 2025 Championship comes to a conclusion. The holders and standard-bearers Listowel Emmets take on the surprise package Knocknagoshel in what promises to be a very intriguing final. Listowel have been the benchmark over the last two decades or so, having lifted The Bernard O'Callaghan Cup on seven occasions since 2004, while also finishing runners-up four times in that period. Knocknagoshel, in contrast, contest their first North Kerry Championship Final in their history. Two teams with seemingly two very different agendas. Listowel will want to cement their place as the current kings of North Kerry, while also equalling Moyvane's haul of eighteen titles. There is also a small personal matter for Listowel's long-serving Ger McCarthy, who if his side wins, could break the record of seven North Kerry Championship medals to lead the way on eight. Knocknagoshel won't be worried about records in the competition though, with their sole interest being to create their own history, in this their maiden final.

Throughout the year the opposing teams have been playing on different spectrums of Kerry GAA competition. Listowel Emmets had a respectable mid-table finish in an ever competitive division 2, while Knocknagoshel had a very disappointing campaign dropping to division 5 for 2026. Then after an encouraging group phase in The Junior Championship, they ultimately limped out at the quarter final stage, while Emmets were desperately unlucky to not be competing in the semi finals of The Intermediate Championship. The levels may seem poles apart but we all know The North Kerry Championship can be somewhat of a leveller and as history tells us, it is not inordinately rare for a lower-ranked team to take the spoils in a final. This of course is one element that will encourage Knock and give Emmets cause to be wary.

Emmets have reached this year's showpiece having overcome a spirited Beale team in the first round, followed by an accomplished performance against Ballydonoghue in the quarter final and ultimately a controlled win over Ballyduff in the semi final. Knocknagoshel got their campaign off to a brilliant start defeating local rivals Brosna by three points after extra time. What followed however was remarkable when they faced a very fancied Castleisland Desmonds in the quarter final. Surprising to many they dominated their opponents throughout and were full value for their six point win. The semi final was even more remarkable as Knocknagoshel stunned St. Senans, a much more traditional North Kerry side.

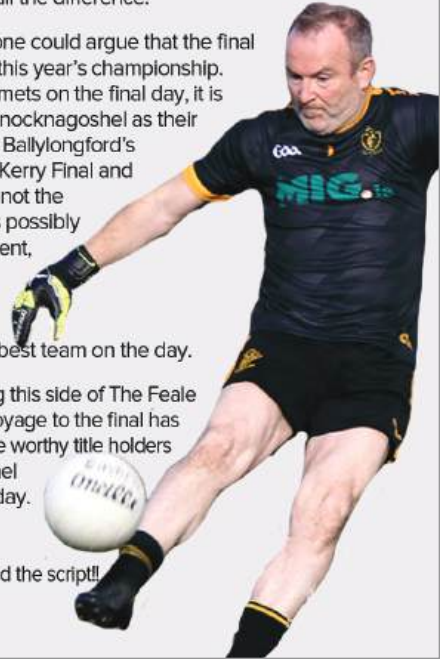

Incidentally the semi finals retained many similarities making this final all the more fascinating. Both Knocknagoshel and Listowel Emmets were very economical upfront against their counterparts, however did cough up a lot of chances at the other end. Ballyduff and St. Senans had numerous opportunities to put real pressure on their respective opponents but failed to capitalise. It would have been interesting to see how either would have responded had the cushion been smaller as the buzzer neared.

Looking at Listowel's team they have quality all over. The ever green and vastly experienced Shane Quinn is in goal behind a very solid defence, with many having wore the Kerry jersey at various grades. They have a strong midfield with lively forwards upfront, though less likely to attempt two pointers, are very efficient closer to goal. Listowel seem to adopt a controlled playing style, not prepared to take many risks, rather carve an opportunity and are very adept in taking them. Knocknagoshel on the other hand have a sprinkle of youth and experience throughout, and though few if any would have wore the county colours, many have been successful with St. Kierans at different underage levels. The team has a huge work ethic and have played with a real belief and hunger that has been unmatched so far in the competition. Knock have a number of players who won't be afraid to attempt from outside the arc and taking these opportunities will be pivotal in their quest.

With the recent rule changes the battle at midfield has become crucial and the result on Sunday could very well hinge of who gets the upper hand in those exchanges. Listowel's Daragh Leahy and Joe Joe Grimes, who have been very consistent throughout, face a slightly older pairing of Shane O'Connell and Billy O'Rahilly. The Knock combination have shown an absolute desire and drive to this point providing their team with a platform to attack. This may be the key battleground where the importance of primary possession and breaks could ultimately determine the result. Another factor that could prove decisive, as the game goes deeper, is the disparity in each team's panel. Knocknagoshel lack reinforcements from the bench, while Listowel have a huge advantage in this regard. Having players such as Sam Tarrant, Cormac Mulvihill, Sean Keane and Bryan Sweeney to call on could make all the difference.

So its down to one final game and no one could argue that the final pairing includes the best two teams of this year's championship. While it is no shock to see Listowel Emmets on the final day, it is both surprising and refreshing to see Knocknagoshel as their opponents for the glory of North Kerry. Ballylongford's Pat Dowling will officiate his first North Kerry Final and no doubt he will referee the game and not the occasion. Brosna is the venue, which is possibly the best pitch in the district at the moment, and will be a swell with anticipation from 2pm next Sunday. Lets hope for a great game, played in the spirit of North Kerry, with the winner being the best team on the day.

Logic suggests the cup will be remaining this side of The Feale for another year but Knocknagoshel's voyage to the final has been anything but logical. Emmets are the worthy title holders from 2024, but no doubt Knocknagoshel will be knocking on their door this Sunday. The boys in green & gold are currently writing the final page of their fairytale, however I suspect Listowel won't have read the script!!

OUR LADY OF MOUNT CARMEL

Oh, most beautiful flower of Mount Carmel, fruitful vine, splendor of Heaven.

Blessed Mother of the Son of God; Immaculate Virgin, assist me in my necessity. Oh, Star of the Sea, help me and show me you are my Mother. Oh, Holy Mary, Mother of God, Queen of Heaven and Earth, I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to succour me in my necessity (Mention your request here)

There are none that can withstand your power. Oh, Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee (3 times). Sweet Mother, I place this cause in your hands (3 times). Amen

This prayer is never known to fail. It is to be said for 3 consecutive days. Publication on granting of the favour must be promised and done. B.F.

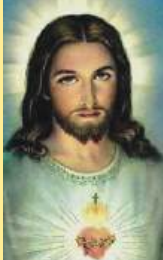

THE MIRACLE PRAYER

Dear Heart of Jesus in the past I have asked many favours.

This time I ask you this special one, (mention favour). Take it dear heart of Jesus and place it within your heart where your father sees it. Then in his merciful eyes it will become your own favour not mine. Amen.

Say this prayer three times for three days and your favour will be granted. Never been known to fail. Must promise publication of prayer. B.F.
