CAROLINE'S DÓTERRA ESSENTIAL OILS

WELLNESS WITH CAROLINE HORGAN

Supporting Immunity Through the Heart of Winter

By the second half of January, winter has well and truly settled in. The festive buzz has faded, routines are back in place, and many families are navigating coughs, colds, sore throats, and seasonal bugs doing the rounds. This is the time of year when supporting our immune systems becomes especially important - not just when illness strikes, but as part of everyday wellness.

Essential oils can play a supportive role in caring for the body naturally during the colder months.

Everyday Immune Support Oils

Three of my most-used oils at this time of year are On Guard, Tea Tree, and Oregano.

On Guard is a protective blend that supports the body's natural defenses while also cleansing the air when diffused in the home. It's a wonderful daily oil for winter, particularly in busy households and during the school term.

Tea Tree is well known for its cleansing and purifying properties. I use it regularly diluted on the skin, in roller blends, or diffused in the evenings to help keep the home environment supported.

Oregano is one of the strongest immune-supporting oils and is often used at the first sign of seasonal changes. It can be taken in a veggie capsule, diffused, or blended with other immune oils — always with proper guidance.

A Natural Wellness Kit for the Whole Family

All three of these oils are included in dōTERRA's Family Essentials Kit, which contains the Top Ten Foundation Oils. This kit retails at €190.25 and includes 5ml bottles, each containing approximately 95 drops of oil. It's a very cost-effective way to support everyday health and wellness for the whole family.

For those looking to use essential oils more regularly, my best-selling Home Essentials Kit retails at €339.25 and includes the same Top Ten Foundation Oils in 15ml bottles, each containing approximately 300 drops of oil, along with the popular Petal Diffuser. This kit offers excellent value for families who diffuse daily and apply oils regularly.

In simple terms, the Family Essentials Kit is ideal for those starting out or using oils occasionally, while the Home Essentials Kit is best suited to families who use essential oils daily and want larger bottles, longer-lasting value, and the added benefit of a diffuser.

All dōTERRA oils are 100% pure and unadulterated and are carefully sourced and tested for quality, allowing them to be used aromatically, topically, and internally where appropriate, with proper guidance.

Simple Winter Wellness Habits

Small, consistent habits can make a big difference during winter:

- Diffusing immune-supporting oils morning and evening
- Applying diluted oils to the soles of the feet
- Supporting rest, hydration, and nourishing meals
- Acting early rather than waiting until illness takes hold

Supporting You on Your Wellness Journey

I continue to be the go-to dōTERRA Wellness Advocate for North Kerry and West Limerick, supporting individuals and families who wish to purchase essential oils or open their own dōTERRA account.

Opening an account through me for €25 for the year (or free when purchasing a kit) gives you 25% savings across the entire range, along with my personal guidance to help you use your oils safely and confidently as part of your family's wellness routine.

Caroline's Top Tip – Winter Immune Roller

In a 10ml roller bottle, combine:

- 5 drops On Guard
- 3 drops Tea Tree
- 2 drops Oregano

Top with carrier oil and apply to the soles of the feet, back of the neck, or wrists — particularly before school, work, or bedtime.

Thought for the Week:

"Winter wellness is built on preparation, consistency, and caring for the body before it asks for help."

CASTING CALL FOR MUNNIX PRODUCTION

Casting Call for Young Performers –
New Community Production at Teach Siamsa Finuge

Teach Siamsa Finuge is delighted to announce the revival of a much-loved play by Pat Ahern, celebrating the life and legacy of renowned local dance master Jeremiah Molyneaux. As part of this exciting community project, Teach Siamsa Finuge is issuing a casting call for young actors, dancers, singers, and musicians aged 9–13 to take part in the production.

The play brings together music, movement, and storytelling and offers young people the chance to be involved in a supportive, creative folk-theatre experience rooted in North Kerry tradition.

The production will be led by producer Brian Caball, working with an experienced creative team. No auditions are required. Rehearsals begin on Friday, 6 February at 7.00 pm at Teach Siamsa Finuge. For further information or to register interest, please email teachsiamsafinuge@gmail.com.

This production offers a wonderful opportunity for young people to build confidence, make friends, and be part of a living local cultural tradition.

AN SEANCHÁÍ – KERRY WRITERS' MUSEUM PRESENTS RUSHES | LUACHAIR

An Seanchaí – Kerry Writers' Museum, in partnership with Maynooth University and the Heritage Council, presents Rushes | Luachair, a specially commissioned exhibition and programme of workshops celebrating women's moving image art practice, timed to coincide with Imbolc | Féile Bride 2026.

Taking place on Fri 30 and Sat 31 January 2026, Rushes | Luachair brings together the work of five artists - Lisa Fingleton, Laura Fitzgerald (curator), Bláithín Mac Donnell, Lorraine Neeson, and Mieke Vanmechelen - whose practices explore themes of land, identity, peripherality and productive liminality through film, analogue and digital media.

The exhibition uses the metaphor of rushes / luachair - both as marshland associated with marginal spaces and as a term for raw film footage - to examine hidden, overlooked and in-process work. Installed throughout Kerry Writers' Museum in a site-responsive way, the exhibition draws attention to liminal spaces such as stair returns, corners and drawers, inviting audiences to look again at what is usually unseen.

Highlights include:

- Lisa Fingleton's projection of Lovelochán, documenting the making of a heart-shaped pond on her farm, screened onto the walls of Listowel Castle.
- Laura Fitzgerald's new moving-image works, including The other's Other, interwoven with collages and a new publication.
- Bláithín Mac Donnell's collages, photographic slideshow, camera obscura, and live performance The Road Cuts Through.
- Lorraine Neeson's nocturnal moving-image work Frequencies (After Light / Near Dark) alongside a neon installation, There.
- Mieke Vanmechelen's film Bits of Me, charting family exchanges within the Caha Mountains over five years.

Opening Night – Friday 30 January, 6.00pm

Rushes | Luachair opens with an outdoor screening by Lisa Fingleton

Workshops | Meitheleacha – Saturday 31 January

The participatory programme takes place from 10.00am, modelled on a traditional meitheal of women filmmakers.

Rushes | Luachair is supported by Research Ireland through the New Foundations scheme. All events are free and open to the public.

SAN RITA WELLNESS

Welcome to San Rita Wellness weekly column...We hope all is good with you, below is our weekly column for this week.

Imagine if everybody was the same, for example looked the same, ate the same food, enjoyed the same music, walked the same way, talked the same and dressed the same, wouldn't life be very boring.

So let's look at things from a different angle:

Different Lifestyles...

Young mums or dads at home with children, full or part time workers, office or manual workers, people who work away from home and people who work from home, retired people ... No matter which of the above you slot into, these are different types of lifestyles but yet we may all be aiming to achieve the same outcome.

Our ethos at San Rita Wellness is the following:
"Eat Well, Feel Well, Live Well"

Different food preferences or requirements...

On our San Rita Wellness plan no food is off limits so whether you are vegetarian, vegan, faddy eater, plain eater or gluten intolerant you can still eat healthily and enjoy the foods you love while still feeling in control. Remember you have the freedom to choose your foods your way once it all fits into your calorie allowance.

Different exercise needs and choices...

Active or inactive, sporty people, people who hate exercise, younger people, older people, again we are all different and move at a different pace. But at the end of the day it is important that we enjoy what we do but we all want the same result which is to feel healthier and fitter.

Different ways of losing weight...

New to losing weight, seasoned dieters, people who like rules and structure, people who want maximum flexibility, whichever you are, our San Rita Wellness plan will suit you. We know we all lose weight differently and at a different pace but the thing to remember is once it's working for you "It's Working"

Different weight loss challenges...

We all face different challenges but you are not alone. A challenge sometimes needs to be challenged, whether that means learning to cook simple dishes, breaking down your weight loss goals, give suggestions to the person preparing your meal, or planning ahead for your upcoming social occasions..

Different expectations...

Thinking it will be easy, not believing you can do it, happy to lose weight steadily or want results fast.

Again we all have different expectations but we also have to be realistic. Weight loss and Wellness happen over time by being patient with yourself, believing in yourself and understanding that if you were to continue doing the same thing all the time, you will always get the same result.

For extra support and for weekly accountability check us out on Facebook San Rita Wellness or sanritawellness.ie for details of our "In Person Meetings", "At Home Service" or our "One to One Service".

NB - Our weekly "In Person Meetings" take place in the Kerry Writers Museum, The Square, Listowel every Wednesday from 10am to 11am and 6pm to 7pm

The Sky is Not Enough:

A Heart-Stirring Journey of Dreams, Danger, and Destiny

By June O'Sullivan

An Irish woman dares to conquer the skies – and discovers that freedom comes at a cost.

In 1928, Sophie Peirce-Evans marries Sir James Heath. With her new titled status as Lady Heath, she embarks on her most daring adventure yet: a solo flight in a biplane from Cape Town to London. Already a trail-blazer – a world-record athlete, Britain's first woman to parachute from a plane and first to earn a commercial pilot's license – she is determined to prove that women belong in aviation and to showcase the potential of an aviation route from the colonies.

Fiercely independent, Sophie charts her 10,000-mile route using pages from a road atlas, services her own aircraft, and defies every restriction placed on women. But as she soars over the vast continent memories from a traumatic past resurface: her mother murdered, her father imprisoned in an Irish asylum, and a childhood shaped by repression and loss. Having been stricken with sunstroke, crash-landing in the wilderness and nursed by local women, thwarted at every turn by the authorities and ultimately seeking help from Mussolini, she finally lands in London – heels, furs and all.

Though celebrated, Sophie realises fame cannot free her from her past. She has conquered the skies but not the shadows that follow.

KERRY HOSPICE FOUNDATION AND TWO OTHER CHARITIES PRESENTED WITH PROCEEDS OF NEW YEAR'S EVE HUMANITY BALL

It was announced this week that a whopping €245,329 was raised for three charities as a result of The Humanity Ball, a prestigious black-tie New Year's Eve charity gala ball, which took in Tralee's Ballygarry Estate Hotel & Spa on New Year's Eve, attended by over 300 people.

The primary charity that has benefitted is the Kerry Hospice Foundation, which was presented with a cheque for €165,329 at an event on Monday 19th January at the Ballygarry Estate Hotel & Spa, hosted by hotel owner Padraig McGillicuddy. Also, Louise Quill, founder of The Tír na n-Óg Children's Foundation was on hand to receive a cheque for €40,000 and the One4Humanity charity also received a cheque for €40,000.

The Humanity Ball committee were delighted with the response from the Kerry corporate community after far exceeding their initial target of €200,000.

Stephen Stack, chairman of The Humanity Ball said: "We are truly humbled by the generosity shown at the New Year's Eve Humanity Ball. Raising €245,000 in a single evening for our three worthy charities is a powerful testament that what can be achieved when a community comes together with purpose, compassion and celebration. A huge thank you to everyone involved including our lead sponsors, table sponsors, purchasers of tables, private donors, providers of the unique auction prizes, to Padraig and the staff at the Ballygarry and, of course, to our outstanding committee. It was a powerful team effort by everyone."

Jack Shanahan, Kerry Hospice Foundation, who was delighted with the money which will go towards continued palliative care and also a new wing of their facility, commented: "Kerry Hospice Foundation is delighted and humbled by the enormous and generous support shown at the Humanity Ball. It was a unique event that showcased how the businesses of Kerry support the community in important and varied ways. We are truly grateful to be major beneficiaries and can guarantee that every euro raised will be invested in local palliative care services. A huge thank you to all that made it such a success."

Louise Quill, whose Tír na n-Óg Children's Foundation is dedicated to transforming the lives of vulnerable children in Tanzania, said: "On behalf of everyone at Tír na n-Óg Children's Foundation, I want to extend our deepest thanks for being chosen as a beneficiary of the Humanity Ball. Our motto is to change one child's life at a time, and the generosity shown by the organisers and contributors does exactly that. Your kindness doesn't just support our work — it brings hope, opportunity, and real change to the children we serve. We are profoundly grateful for your belief in our mission and for helping us turn compassion into action."

Shane Leahy from One4Humanity, which provides medicine and mobile surgical units for the people of Gaza and Ukraine commented: "Thank you, we are incredibly grateful to the Humanity Ball for a magical New Year's Eve and for the remarkable generosity shown throughout the night. Thanks to the dedication of the organizing committee, the compassion of the sponsors & everyone who attended, 3 charities will benefit in a meaningful way. It was a night that perfectly captured the spirit of humanity."

The Humanity Ball was spearheaded by Branch Manager of AIB Tralee, Stephen Stack, along with a committee comprising of people from the world of business in Kerry including Sean Ryan, Maeve Townsend, Ogie Moran, Dick Spring, Jimmy Deenihan, Brid McElligott, Keelin Kissane, Alex O'Donnell, Kilian Burns, John Reen, Kevin O'Sullivan and Aisling McElligott.

Keep up to date with club activities. For updates, photos, and all the latest news from around the club, make sure you're following Beale GAA on Facebook, X (Twitter) and Instagram. If you haven't already done so, join our Beale GAA Community WhatsApp group to keep up to date with fixtures and results as they happen.

The Lotto draw took place in The Bunker Bar on Sunday. Numbers were: 6,9,21 and 22. There was no Jackpot winner and Match-3 winners, €25 each: Breid Griffin, Dan Ahern (online), Jacqueline Crowe and Susan Costello.
6 Free Tickets Winner: Darren Kenny

Check out the winning Beale Lotto numbers and prize details each week in local newspapers, on our social media platforms or in designated outlets. Next week's draw will take place in The Railway on Sunday night, with a jackpot of €3,800. A huge 'mile buíochas' to all who support and promote the lotto. Beale Lotto tickets, €2 or three for a fiver, are available in Cahill's SuperValu, the local pubs and online.

Beale GAA Club extends sympathies to the family of Anne Murphy (nee Kissane) and to the extended Murphy and Kissane families on Anne's untimely passing. Anne was a valued member of our senior ladies' team in the early days of the club. Over 40 years ago, Beale Ladies brought county glory back to the seaside in their first year of competition. Anne lined out at midfield when our senior ladies won the first, and only, County Intermediate Championship, in 1983. Ar dheis Dé gurb a h-anam dhil.

FINUGE GAA

FINUGE 500: December is always a bumper month for the Finuge 500 draw and we had a long list of prizes and winners yet again with the draw taking place at McCarthys Bar on Monday the 29th of December. Congratulations to our December winner PJ Kelliher who took away the top prize of €500 - a great start to the new year for PJ. Next up was the excellent hamper from Life Pharmacy Lixnaw worth €250 and Mary Fitzmaurice pulled out Eamon Breen as the winner - congratulations to our long suffering chairman. Third prize was a fine hamper from Foleys Shop in Lixnaw worth €100, with the prize going to Jamie Fitzgerald. Kelly Ann Walsh and John Shanahan were both winners of €50 Finuge 500 annual entry tickets to our monthly draw. Next up were two €50 drinks vouchers courtesy of McCarthys Bar where Mary McCarthy drew out Kieran Mackessy and Louise Barry as the winners. Last prizes to be won on the night were Elaine O'Mahony and Rachel McKenna who both took away €25 entry six month tickets for Finuge 500. Congratulations to all our worthy winners and a huge thank you all the businesses that supported this draw and our monthly draw throughout the year.
Entry tickets for each month are available at McCarthy's Bar Finuge, Foleys Your Stop Shop Lixnaw, Stacks Londis Lixnaw, JJ Walsh Bar & Butchers Lixnaw, Gibbons Filling Station Lixnaw and the Post Office Lixnaw. AGM: The AGM of the Finuge GAA Club took place Sunday night the 18th of January in the clubrooms. In another milestone step for our club, Bridget Liston was elected Chairperson for 2026, taking over from Eamon Breen. Bridget has an impressive record with Finuge GAA as secretary over the past 13 years while also holding posts with North Kerry Football Board and Lixnaw GAA. We wish Bridget the very best for the year ahead and look forward to her leadership. The club is very grateful to Eamon Breen for his service over the past five years as Chairperson and we are look for to many more years of contribution to come from Eamon. A full list of elected officers will follow.

RACE NIGHT: On Saturday night, 6th December, the club ran a fantastic video race night fundraiser in McCarthys Bar, Finuge. Renowned sport journalist Murt Murphy was MC on the night and proved a brilliant host that kept everyone entertained and the event moving. With 14 races including an auction race, a busy and entertaining night was had by everyone. A great group from Con Dillons Pub Listowel emerged as the winners of the auction race when 'Gordons Army' crossed the line in first place which sparked great celebrations! Thank you to everyone who bought horses, sponsored races, purchased adverts in the race programme, bought horses in the auction race and attended on the night. Our various race sponsors on the night were Jimmy Deenihan, Donal Browne, Lixnaw Coursing Club, Georgie Joy, Donaghy & Scanlon Masonry, Maurice Lyons & Brian McCarthy, Liston Electrical, The Corridan Family, Cronin's Cider, Gerry Galvin & Family, Tom Kelly Scaffolding, Irish Wire Products, Listowel Livestock Market, Lixnaw GAA Club.

CLUB SHOP: With the new season only around the corner, we have the perfect gifts for the football player or supporter in your life - Finuge GAA merchandise. This is an online shop hosted by KCS. Search for www.kcsports.ie, click on the 'Club Shop' tab and search for Finuge. We have over 30 items of high quality Finuge branded sports gear to choose from, happy shopping.

KERRY FOOTBALL: The green & gold wave continues for Kerry football after two great weekends that saw three Kerry clubs capture all three All-Ireland club titles. Ballymac took the Junior honours, An Ghaeltacht secured the Intermediate title, while last Sunday Dingle won the Senior Club title for the first time. This completes the hattrick and writes Kerry clubs into the history books as the first county to win all three competitions in the same season. These are great times for Kerry football as we all look forward to the new season with renewed optimism!
