FINE GAEL SENATOR MIKE KENNELLY WELCOMES AGREEMENT ON SHORT-TERM LETTING FRAMEWORK

On Tuesday last Fine Gael Senator Mike Kennelly welcomed confirmation from the Minister for Enterprise, Tourism and Employment, Peter Burke TD, that agreement has been reached with the Department of Housing, the Taoiseach and the Tánaiste in relation to short-term letting.

Senator Kennelly said:

"I understand from the Minister for Enterprise, Tourism and Employment, Peter Burke TD, that agreement has now been reached with the Department of Housing, the Taoiseach and the Tánaiste around short-term letting.

This is a matter I have raised directly with both the Minister and the Tánaiste, and I was glad to receive this update late last night.

The Minister has recognised that the sector urgently needs clarity so that operators can plan for the upcoming tourism season. I understand that an agreement in principle has now been reached to allow short-term letting operators based in towns with a population of 20,000 or less to continue to provide this critical service.

In reaching this agreement, the Minister is striking a careful balance between the need to address housing supply and the importance of protecting rural and regional tourism, along with the many jobs that depend on it. It is also widely accepted that cities provide the greatest opportunity for short-term letting properties to be returned to the long-term rental market.

Further clarity is expected later this week, and I understand that the Department of Housing will be issuing new guidance to Local Authorities in relation to planning permission.

The introduction of the new short-term letting register has been welcomed by the sector and is expected to come into force this summer, once the necessary legislation is passed.

While planning permission will still be required, I am hopeful that a workable solution can be found to allow operators who have been in operation for seven years or more to be exempt from planning requirements."

CAROLINE'S DÓTERRA ESSENTIAL OILS

WELLNESS WITH CAROLINE HORGAN

Self-Love, Self-Care, and Valentine Wellness

As Valentine's Day approaches, the focus often turns to romantic love — but this time of year is also a beautiful reminder of the importance of self-love. Taking care of ourselves is not selfish; it's essential. When we nourish our own wellbeing, we show up better for our families, our work, and those we care about most. Self-care doesn't have to be complicated. Sometimes, it's the small daily rituals that make the biggest difference.

Essential Oils for Self-Love and Calm

Essential oils can be a simple yet powerful way to support emotional wellbeing. Oils such as Lavender, Wild Orange, Balance, and Frankincense are wonderful companions for moments of rest, reflection, and grounding.

- Lavender supports calm, relaxation, and restful sleep
- Wild Orange uplifts the mood and encourages positivity
- Balance helps steady emotions and brings a sense of grounding
- Frankincense supports quiet moments of reflection and connection

Diffusing oils in the evening, applying a favourite oil to the wrists or soles of the feet, or simply pausing to take a few deep breaths can become acts of self-care — gentle reminders to slow down and tune in.

Self-Love Is Not Selfish

Caring for your body and mind is one of the most loving things you can do. Whether it's taking a quiet walk, enjoying a warm bath with calming oils, journaling, or heading to bed a little earlier, these moments matter.

Valentine's week is a lovely opportunity to treat yourself — not with pressure or expectations, but with kindness and care.

Caroline's Self-Care Ritual

In the evening, I like to diffuse Lavender or Balance, dim the lights, and take a few minutes to slow my breathing. Sometimes I'll apply a drop of oil diluted to my wrists or feet and simply sit quietly, allowing the day to gently close. It's a small ritual, but one that helps me unwind, reset, and sleep more peacefully.

Supporting You on Your Wellness Journey

I continue to support individuals and families across North Kerry and West Limerick who are interested in using essential oils safely and confidently. Whether you're just starting out or deepening your wellness journey, I'm always happy to guide you.

Thought for the Week:

"Self-love is not a luxury — it's the foundation of wellbeing."

SAN RITA WELLNESS

Welcome to San Rita Wellness weekly column...We hope all is good with you, below is our weekly column for this week.

Love is in the air and as it's Valentines Day this Saturday and it might be worth asking ourselves the following question..

What is Love?

Someone once said "Love is an understanding or a misunderstanding between two fools"

Love comes in many ways, shapes and forms. This week, we are looking at three different kinds of love.

The foods we LOVE, the people we LOVE and the different ways we can LOVE ourselves.

Foods we LOVE ♥

At San Rita Wellness we believe that it is important to find a way to still have the foods you love without feeling guilty, and that's why our plan works so well for our members. We all know that if you have to deprive yourself of something it only makes you want it all the more. So, with consideration everything in moderation. It is important to us all to be able to still have the foods we love and still feel in control of our weight.

Tips:

- Look on them as a treat rather than a threat.
- Quality over Quantity, ie. go for a good quality chocolate rather than a cheaper brand.
- Choosing lower calorie meals during the day allows you to have a more indulgent evening meal.
- Keep active and burn calories to allow you to indulge a little at this time special time.

People we LOVE ♥

Having the love and support from the people around you is a very important part of a person's wellness journey. We all love some time on our own but there are other times when we need the company of others. We all love for example catching up with our friends either in person or over the phone. So lets look at how the people you love can help you on your Weight loss and Wellness journey.

Tips:

- Go for a walk together as a family.
- Play cards or a board game in the evening time as very often this can be a danger time for snacking.
- Ask them to keep their treats out of sight from you as they may tempt you.
- Get everyone involved with you on a fun workout on You Tube etc.

Self Care and LOVE ♥

Loving yourself is not selfish. Make yourself a priority. Schedule in some "ME" Time. Don't wait for the time to just magically appear. It won't. If you don't show love to yourself, you can't expect anyone else to show love to you. It is also important to keep in mind how you speak to yourself. When you look in the mirror every morning start your day by giving yourself a compliment.

Tips:

- Dress up every morning and put on make up.
- Have a pamper night, a relaxing bath, apply a face mask and paint your nails.
- Every day set 10 or 15 mins aside without any distractions just for yourself.
- A walk in the beautiful town park or the beach can be beneficial to both your mindset and your body.

So to finish up a little Valentines thought,

Don't shower me with flowers
Don't dance with me for hours
Don't take me out to dinner
Just say "I'm looking slimmer"

Heart the Lover

By Lily King

'You knew I'd write a book about you someday'

Our narrator understands good love stories - their secrets, their highs and free falls. But her greatest love story, the one she lived, never followed the rules.

She was in her senior year of college when star students Sam and Yash swept her into an intoxicating world of academic fervour, rapid-fire banter and raucous card games. Their lives became quickly intertwined - with friendship but also with unpredictable passions and the intimations of first love.

Decades later, she is a successful writer, living a comfortable life with her husband and children, when a surprise visit brings the past crashing into the present, forcing her to confront the decisions and deceptions of her youth.

Written with the precision of poetry and the emotional tide of an epic, Heart the Lover is a celebration of literature and the life-long echoes of young love. This is King at her very best, affirming her as a masterful chronicler of the human experience and one of the finest novelists at work today.

TARBERT NEWS

Contact: tarbertnews@outlook.com or telephone Patrick Lynch at 068/36117 on or before 7pm Sunday. Fan slán.

DEATHS

The death took place of Stanislaus (Stan) Foley of Tieraclea House, Tarbert, former residence of the Collis family, and Illinois, USA. Stan who was aged 82 died at University Hospital, Limerick on Wednesday 4 February. He reposed at St. Mary's Funeral Home, Tarbert on Friday last. His Requiem Mass, celebrated by Fr. John Buckley took place at St. Mary's Church, Tarbert on Saturday 7 February.

His daughter Meaghan, born in the USA and who had been with him for the last two weeks of his illness spoke of how he had brought so much joy and happiness into her life and of his love for family and friends. St. Mary's Choir sang the liturgical hymns and 'A Time for Remembering' at his interment in St. Mary's New Cemetery.

Stan was one of six children, four boys and two girls, born to Maurice and Josie Foley (née Dalton) in Chapel Street, Tarbert. His mother Josie Foley taught for many years in Tarbert Girls National School up until her retirement in 1968. The family later moved to Tieraclea House. Finishing at Tarbert National School and with no prospects of work at home, Stan like his brother Liam emigrated to the USA working in Illinois. An able craftsman he worked in carpentry and construction there for over thirty years. He married Kathleen Walsh and they had a daughter Meaghan. Following the death of his brother Liam he returned to Tieraclea House to look after his brother Maurice where he lived for the last ten years of his life. Stan was predeceased by his parents Maurice and Josie, and brothers Tadhg and Liam. Sympathy of the community to his daughter Meaghan, Meaghan's mother Kathleen (Walsh), brother Maurice, sisters Eileen and Felicia, brothers-in-law Joe (Savage) and Vincent (McCabe), sister-in-law Chris (Finucane), nephews, nieces, relatives, neighbours and friends.

KERRY FOOTBALL: A return to reality last Sunday week when the long trip to Ballyshannon resulted in a Donegal win. However you must be optimistic considering all the new and young players involved on the day for Kerry, while Donegal were very close to full strength. One win and one loss means the home game against Galway this Saturday, 14th of Feb at 5pm, will be an important one firstly for division one survival and secondly to stay in the race for a league final appearance - plenty football to be played yet in this league!

KERRY HURLING: A convincing win for the senior hurlers over London with four goals being the difference. Well done to John Griffin and his men. Next up is an away game Saturday the 21st of February against Laois at 2:00pm in O'Moore Park Portlaoise.

KERRY LADIES FOOTBALL: Well done to the Kerry Ladies who secured an away win on Sunday against Meath in what is always a very closely fought affair.

UACHTARÁN VISIT: Saturday week was a red letter day in the village of Finuge as the President of Ireland Catherine Connolly came to visit. The President first spent time in the Teach Siamsa, then moving to Sheahan's Thatched Cottage. Members of Finuge GAA welcomed the President into the village as she passed by the football pitch on her way to the Teach. A huge well done to everyone involved in organising this momentous visit in a day that will long in the locality.

DUAGH / LYRE COMM GAMES

U10 Indoor Soccer

Well done to our u10 indoor soccer team last Sunday who played in the group stages of the Kerry Community games competition in Duagh sports complex. Duagh were drawn in a group of three with the top team going forward to the semi-finals. Duagh were drawn in the first games against Dromid/Waterville unfortunately losing on a score of 7 goals to 5, in the second game against Currow/ Currans losing 5 goals to 3 & in the final games losing to a stronger Kilcummin team. The boys played fantastic all day and enjoyed the teamwork and competition. Thanks to Mike Brosnan for managing the team. Team: Oisín Brosnan, Daniel Carmody, Shane Cronin, David Lyons, Harry Moloney, Aodhán Musgrave, Conor Philips and Ronan Sheeran. Thanks to Kerry Community games and Nelius Collins for a well-run competition and to Duagh sports complex for a fantastic venue.

U13 Indoor Soccer

Well done to our u13 indoor soccer team last Saturday in the Kerry Community Games competition in Duagh sports complex. The girls were drawn in the group with Fossa and Ballyduff. In the first game the girls won the 7-1 v Fossa. In the second game unfortunately the girls lost 6-1 v Ballyduff. The girls qualified for the semi-final where they played a strong Kenmare team. The girls battled hard in first half and were down 2-1 at half time. At the start of the second half, they really pushed hard to draw level but with two goals in quick succession and final score 6-1. The score didn't reflect the saves, the determination and passion of the girls. The girls did their utmost and enjoyed their indoor soccer experience. Team: Samantha Lyons, Siún Kelly, Molly Dennehy, Saoirse Brosnan, Shonagh Walsh, Clara Danagher, Shauna Sheehy and Clodagh Keane. Managers Sean Brosnan and Aoife O'Malley. Thanks to Nelius Collins and Kerry Community games for a well-run competition and thanks to Duagh sports complex for a great venue.
