LISTOWEL WRITERS' WEEK REVEALS OPENING CHAPTER OF 55TH ANNIVERSARY PROGRAMME

There are literary festivals across the country each summer. And then there is Listowel Writers' Week. As it prepares to celebrate its 55th edition, the country's oldest literary festival has released a first glimpse of what lies ahead. This is not the full story. It is the opening chapter, setting the tone before the plot gathers pace.

The Irish contingent reflects the depth and range of current writing. Memoirist Katriona O'Sullivan, novelists Edel Coffey and Mary Costello, and Laureate for Irish Fiction Eilís Ní Dhuibhne will feature. Crime fiction will be strongly represented by Liz Nugent and Claire Coughlan, both publishing new work this year.

Award-winning broadcaster and novelist Fergal Keane will appear in Listowel, bringing the perspective of a reporter who has witnessed history and a writer now shaping it in fiction. Trade union leader Mick Lynch will travel from the picket lines of London to the streets of Listowel, where calm argument and strong opinion are equally welcome.

Booker shortlisted novelist Andrew Miller joins a line-up that includes Anya Bergman, Keith Ridgway and Ardal O'Hanlon, whose latest novel A Plot to Die For is due for release. Hungarian poet and literary historian Győző Ferencz will travel from Budapest, while Scottish poet and critic Tom Hubbard will deliver his Seamus Heaney lecture, The Emerald Passport: Seamus Heaney and Europe.

The Children's Festival returns this year, placing young readers and aspiring writers firmly at the heart of the programme. It is an investment in the festival's future audience and in the next generation of storytellers, those who will one day take their own place on the stages and pages of Irish writing.

There will also be the Kerry Group Irish Novel of the Year Award, one of the most respected prizes in Irish fiction, with former Scottish First Minister Nicola Sturgeon set to announce the winner alongside novelist and commentator Andrew O'Hagan. The Pigott Poetry Prize remains a centrepiece of the week, and the shortlists for both awards will be announced shortly. Chairman Ned O'Sullivan said the 55th anniversary is a moment of pride. "To reach fifty five years is a remarkable achievement. This festival was founded by people who believed that literature belonged in Listowel and that writers and readers should meet face to face. We are proud of that legacy. The 55th edition celebrates those who built it and those who continue to sustain it."

Curator Máire Logue said the milestone promises an especially vibrant gathering. "This is an exciting year for the festival. Fifty five years is something to celebrate properly. We are looking forward to a great few days of seeing the town alive with writers, readers and conversation. It is a privilege to help shape a programme that honours the past while bringing fresh energy to Listowel."

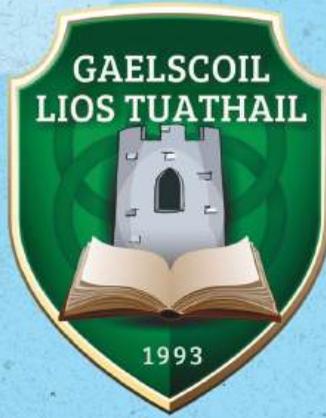

Listowel Writers' Week was the first literary festival in Ireland to introduce creative writing workshops, and that tradition continues. This year's workshops will be led by Catherine Dunne, John Connell, Victoria Kennefick and Enda Wyley. Workshops are currently on sale via the festival website and are selling quickly, with strong early demand reflecting the enduring appetite for serious engagement with the craft.

The 55th edition begins on 27 May. The full programme will be launched in the coming weeks. For now, this is the first page of what promises to be a fitting chapter in a story that has been unfolding in Listowel for more than half a century.

CAROLINE'S DÓTERRA ESSENTIAL OILS

WELLNESS WITH CAROLINE HORGAN

Welcoming March with a Gentle Reset

As we reach the final week of February and prepare to step into the 1st of March this coming weekend, it feels like the perfect moment for a gentle reset. A new month — and the promise of spring — naturally encourages us to refresh our routines, clear out the heaviness of winter, and support our bodies with renewed care.

This time of year is ideal for focusing on wellness from the inside out, and one area many people like to support is the body's natural cleansing systems. Products such as Zendocrine and GX Assist from dÓTERRA are designed to complement the body's own processes and can be a lovely addition to a seasonal wellness routine when used correctly and with guidance.

Simple Seasonal Wellness Habits

Detoxing doesn't have to mean drastic changes. Often, the most effective approach is simply returning to the basics:

- Getting out for a walk each day in the fresh air
- Drinking more water to support hydration
- Adding leafy greens and fresh salads into meals
- Prioritising sleep and early nights where possible

These gentle habits help the body feel lighter, clearer, and more energised as the seasons shift.

Caroline's Wellness Reminder

Wellness isn't just about one thing — it's about the full picture. Alongside oils and supplements, I always encourage simple supportive rituals like preparing your roller bottles in advance, setting a calming evening routine, or even incorporating crystals, journaling, or quiet time into your day. Small intentional practices can make a big difference to how we feel overall.

A Season of Support

What I love most about the wellness world is that it offers something for everyone. Essential oils may be where many people begin, but they're just one part of a much wider umbrella of support for mind, body, and emotional wellbeing.

I'm always here to guide anyone who is starting out, curious to learn more, or looking to choose the right oils or wellness products for their own needs. Having the right support makes all the difference when beginning — or deepening — your wellness journey.

Thought for the Week:

"March reminds us that renewal doesn't have to be dramatic - it can begin with one small, caring step."

'SCÉAL Ó BHÉAL' AT THIS YEAR'S LISTOWEL ST. PATRICK'S DAY PARADE

The Listowel St. Patricks Day Committee are so looking forward to this years annual St. Patrick's Day Parade and Festival, which will be held on Tuesday, March 17th, with lots of activities taking place in the town Square on the day and during the week leading up. The theme for this years parade is 'Scéal Ó Bhéal', 'Tell your story', the theme is intentionally broad, allowing community groups, schools, cultural organisations, artists and clubs to interpret it in their own way and to tell the story that feels most meaningful to them.

There will also be numerous events throughout the week. There are a number of events aimed directly at primary school children, there will be a Comórtas Ealáine (art competition) held in Gaelscoil Lios Tuathail on Wednesday 11th March at 6pm all primary school children are welcome to attend. We will have a Tráth na gCeist in St. Michaels College on Friday 13th March at 6pm, the Tráth na gCeist is open to 5th and 6th class children in teams of 4. Writers week are also sponsoring a Comórtas Scríbhneoireachta in honour of their 55th anniversary, this competition is open to children from 2nd to 6th class and will be run in conjunction with the local schools. 'We are delighted to host these events as part of seachtain na gaeilge and the lead up to our St.Patricks day festival' says committee secretary Breda Dowling.

Some of the other events taking place during the festival are the Pop Up Gaeltacht in John B Keanes, traditional music in Christys, and lots of other live music in all of the bars throughout the town. The Park Run will hold a green mile in honour of St. Patricks Day on Saturday 14th in Listowel Town Park and much more.

On the day of the parade there will be lots going on in the town square from 11am. 'We will have Face Painting, balloon modelling, lots of children's rides and food stalls. We will hold a best dressed dog competition at 11.30am in front of the stage, all entrants are so welcome and just turn up on the day to the stage about 11.15.' continued Breda

In addition to the usual quiet area on Courthouse Road, Listowel's Autism Friendly Town Committee will be offering support to the autistic community on St Patrick's Day, you will find them in the square. There will be a sensory break area with fidget toys & ear defenders available should any families need them. We want families to feel they can be part of the parade celebrations with community support available.

If anybody is interested in participating in this years parade there are entry forms available in St. Johns Theatre or Christys Bar.

SAN RITA WELLNESS

Welcome to San Rita Wellness weekly column...We hope all is good with you, below is our weekly column for this week.

Spring has sprung!!!

Like the beautiful yellow golden daffodils we are all beginning to lift our heads up a little bit more now and show our true colours. We are also noticing the extra stretch in the evenings, the beautiful sunsets and every week brings us a week closer to Summertime. All of these things are beneficial to our overall health and well being.

Most of us know that we need to aim for a healthy, balanced diet and regular exercise to maintain our physical health. These same goals are also important when maintaining our mental health and well-being. Many people struggle with balanced eating, being active and feeling good about their bodies

Quick tips for healthy living

Healthy living is all about moderation, balance and flexibility. There will be some days when you don't eat healthy foods and some days when you don't do enough exercise. This is totally normal in your busy, sometimes stressful, life. The structure in many of our lives may have changed recently. You may get a more accurate picture of how you've been doing if you look back over the past month or so. Looking back gives us a reflection and from that we can then decide if there are changes to be made for the month ahead.

Here are some ideas:

- Aim to make small changes that will improve your health, both mental and physical.
- Nourish your body throughout the day—avoid skipping meals.
- Eat a variety of foods and aim for a balance over the month.
- Eat slowly and without the distractions of TV, computers or smart phones.
- Rather than worry about 'good' versus 'bad' foods, remember that moderation is the key.
- Try to eat more fruits and vegetables.
- Drink lots of water. It helps reduce fatigue and replenishes the body.
- Use caffeine in moderation, particularly if you are prone to anxiety or sleep problems.
- Listen to your body's signals—it will let you know when you are full or hungry.
- Become more conscious of why you eat when you are not really hungry.
- Use exercise as a way to deal with stress.
- Get 7 to 8 hours sleep each night.
- Slowly increase your physical activity level.

Try adding in extra activity throughout your normal day, such as parking away from the supermarket door like many of us are not inclined to do, using the stairs instead of the elevator, being more mindful of your step count everyday. Aim for at least 10,000 steps a day.

Remind yourself that weight and shape are not the only way to evaluate your self-worth—think of at least one other way that shows you are a worthwhile, lovable, talented person who has something to offer the world. Like the daffodils we all have our own individuality and beauty.

You don't have to make big changes to improve your wellness and maintain good mental health. But every change we make can benefit us. When it comes to healthy eating and exercise, every little change counts!

At San Rita Wellness our ethos is "Eat well, Feel well, Live well"

We believe that when we "Eat well" we "Feel well" and it flows into "Living well"

For extra support and for weekly accountability check us out on Facebook San Rita Wellness or sanritawellness.ie for details of our "In Person Meetings", "At Home Service" or our "One to One Service"

What if We Were Brilliant?

By Brilliant Ballynunion

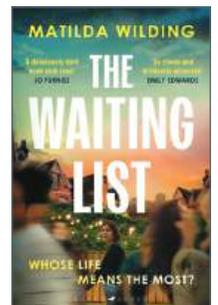

What if We Were Brilliant? is a new book and community project by Brilliant Ballynunion and artist Lisa Fingleton that explores, documents, and celebrates local, creative climate action in North Kerry. The book showcases a two-year journey focusing on growing food, protecting biodiversity, and fostering community resilience in response to ecological crises.

The Waiting List

By Matilda Wilding

An emotional rollercoaster, an agonising dilemma and a blistering book club debut

Whose life means the most?

'Clutched tight in my hand is a scrawled list of names. A list of people who could save my life.'

Liv wants to be the mother she never had

Liv has always dreamt of the moment she will hold her own baby. But just at the moment her new life - as a devoted mother to Max, a loving wife to Justin - should be starting, it looks like it may be ending. An undiagnosed heart condition, worsened by her pregnancy, has thrown her whole future into doubt. If she doesn't receive an urgent transplant, she won't live much longer.

But what if she can't be here for her son?

As she grows weaker, her determination to raise her baby grows stronger. Without her to protect him, what future does Max face? Slowly Liv begins to ask herself a terrible question: she needs someone's healthy heart to replace her failing one. For that to happen, an accident would have to befall someone else. But what if she could engineer that accident herself? What if she could choose someone to die in order that she could live?

If the end of someone else's life offers you the chance of saving your own, whose life means the most?

A powerful and completely gripping novel about love, sacrifice and how life forces you to do the unthinkable.

Tickets also available online at www.finugegaa.com or from any club officer.

The February draw took place last Monday the 23rd Feb - congratulations to Marie Whelan of Finuge who scoops the €500.

SENIOR: Round two of the North Kerry Football Board league sponsored by McCarthy Insurance saw Ballylongford visit Finuge last Sunday the 22nd February. Played in tough conditions on a wet pitch following very heavy rain, the final score read Finuge 1-06; Ballylongford 1-08. Next up will be an away game against Knocknagoshel - watch out for final details towards the weekend.

Main team sponsor Buckley Agri of Listowel are on board again this year as principal sponsor and we are delighted to have such a prestigious business involved with our senior team.

SENIOR COUNTY JUNIOR CHAMPIONSHIP: The much anticipated county championship draws took place recently and teams across all grades have plenty time to prepare! Finuge was drawn into Group 2 of the Junior Championship against familiar faces Moyvane, Ballylongford and Tuosist. We also know that the round one game will be against Moyvane in Finuge. As we have seen through the years, winning the first game is always a priority as it provides momentum going into games two and three.

MINOR: Round one of the North Kerry minor league will get underway on Monday March 30th with all games Monday evenings moving forward.

CLUB MEMBERSHIP: Its that time of the year again and club membership is open to all those wishing to join. For any members that are playing, registration must be completed through Foireann - see www.foireann.ie It is important for all playing members to register through Foireann as it is an insurance requirement. Non-playing membership is also available through Foireann or through any club officer. The club wishes to thank everyone for their support. Rates are as follows - Juvenile €40; Juvenile x 2 €70; Juvenile x 3 €90; Senior player €50; Non-playing Adult €50; Family (2 juveniles & 2 adults) €120.

CLUB SHOP: With the new season underway, we have the perfect gifts for the football player or supporter in your life - Finuge GAA merchandise. This is an online shop hosted by KCS. Search for www.kcsports.ie, click on the 'Club Shop' tab and search for Finuge. We have over 30 items of high quality Finuge branded sports gear to choose from, happy shopping.

KERRY FOOTBALL: Played in tough conditions last Saturday night in Croke Park, it was great to see Kerry seniors come away with a solid win over old friends Dublin. Not a classic encounter by any means, Kerry showed how to win in a tough slog where both teams were cagey. Next up will be the clash with Monaghan this Sunday in Killarney at the early time of 1:15pm

KERRY HURLING: Kerry were very unlucky not to take something from this game, it took a late winner in the last play of the game for Laois to take the two points.

KERRY LADIES FOOTBALL: A tough day out against old rival Cork in Austin Stack Park puts the team under a little pressure now to survive in division one.

CONDOLENCES: All at Finuge GAA wish to express their sympathies to the family of Martin Griffin. A huge supporter and follower of all things GAA, Martin will be greatly missed by everyone who knew him.

TARBERT GAA

Tarbert GAA Monthly €500 Draw: Congratulations to our February prize winners in our draw last Saturday night. Top prize of €500 went to Thomas Cregan, 5 free tickets went to Michael Houlihan and Jack Sheehan.

THE MIRACLE PRAYER

Dear Heart of Jesus in the past I have asked many favours.

This time I ask you this special one, (mention favour). Take it dear heart of Jesus and place it within your heart where your father sees it. Then in his merciful eyes it will become your own favour not mine. Amen.

Say this prayer three times for three days and your favour will be granted. Never been known to fail. Must promise publication of prayer. A.W.

MEANING OF LIFE

"You can stay on the motorway...no, on second thoughts you might be better off taking the second exit at the double roundabout and getting onto the N80... that will take you onto the regional road that links to the motorway... might be faster and get off at exit 23...etc etc."

My head was screaming overload!! overload!! "Please just give me step by step directions. I'm not familiar with the area." was all I could say.

We were on our way to a funeral up the country and had stopped for a cuppa and directions. And we met the most talkative person who knew every road and by road and back road. TMI!!!

It must be my age. I just can't do complicated anymore.

It got me thinking.

Have we a natural tendency to complicate things, overthink things, get into knots about things, look for the deep meaning behind the obvious meaning when in fact there is no hidden meaning??

I love the Word of God because by faith I believe it says what it means and it means what it says. When the Word of God says: "So God created man in His own image; in the image of God He created him; male and female He created them..." Genesis 1:27 that's exactly what it means. When the Word of God says: "And the Lord God formed man of the dust of the ground and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living being." Genesis 1:7 that's exactly what it means.

When the Word of God says, "For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life." John 3:16 that's exactly what it means.

When the Word of God says, "If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness." 1 John 1:9 that's exactly what it means.

When the Word of God says: "For the Lord Himself will descend from Heaven with a shout, with the voice of an archangel, and with the trumpet of God. And the dead in Christ will rise first. Then we who are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. And thus we shall always be with the Lord." 1 Thessalonians 4:16, that's exactly what it means. We can trust that the One, True and Living God means exactly what He says in His Word.
